Internship Posting – Research Analyst, Stormwater and Resiliency

We are seeking a full-time (37.5 hours weekly) summer intern for a 12± week internship as a Research Analyst. The focus of this internship will center around assisting the Director of Stormwater and Resiliency in driving investment from the implementation of Rhode Island's first Statewide Climate Resilience Action Strategy. Also, candidates will be expected to assist the development of the Infrastructure Bank's nascent Stormwater and Resiliency Program. Candidates will be encouraged to take on responsibilities that align with both their own personal interests and the pursuits of the organization.

An internship with RIIB is an exciting opportunity to gain valuable experience at the frontier of the emerging field of green banking in an innovative and supportive work environment. We are seeking candidates with a strong interest and experience in project management, climate finance, stakeholder engagement, and green stormwater infrastructure.

Required Qualifications:

The candidate will be expected to:

- Be currently matriculated in a Bachelor's, Master's or other post graduate degree program relevant to public policy, business management, finance, design, environmental science, or other
- Possess demonstrated interest in infrastructure, climate policy and/or finance through their coursework, work experience and/or extracurricular activities
- Possess a strong track record of project management experience
- Exhibit strong analytical thinking and communication skills (verbal and graphic)
- Work out of the Infrastructure Bank's office in Providence, RI (schedule negotiable)
- Adhere to all rules and regulations required of RIIB staff
- Maintain a level of professionalism and integrity appropriate of a contributing member of the team and organization

Additional Preferred Qualifications:

- Mastery in Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint), Outlook, and other software programs as necessary
- Proficiency in research and data analytics a plus
- Demonstrated facilitation and stakeholder engagement skills

Compensation, Location, and Term

We are offering paid (and credit upon evaluation) internships for the summer of 2018. The internship will be located at the Bank's office in Providence, RI. Candidates must possess the means to commute to our office. This internship will commence in mid-May and last through mid-August (dates negotiable).
