

SUSTAINABLE MUNICIPALITIES: Innovative Practices & Emerging Trends in the U.S.

Hosted by the Hixon Center for Urban Ecology

Co-convened with Sustainable CT, Sustainable States Network, and the YSE Urban Learning Community

The webinar series will be held Tuesdays, February 2nd – March 2nd, from 12 – 1pm EST.

Each session will begin with an introduction by Yale faculty followed by municipal leaders presenting innovative case studies across the US.

Registration required to receive the webinar link.

Register here:
hixon.yale.edu/events/lecture-series/spring-2021-lecture-series

THE EVENT IS FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

THE WEEKLY TOPICS INCLUDE:

February 2nd
The Function and Impact of Municipal Certification Programs

Brad Gentry and Sustainable States Network Speakers

February 9th
Net Zero Communities

Dr. Ken Gillingham and Sustainable States Network Speakers

February 16th
Safe Mobility for All

Dr. John Wargo and Sustainable States Network Speakers

February 23rd
Reinventing Greenspaces

Dr. Gerald Torres and Sustainable States Network Speakers

March 2nd
Eco-districts

David Kooris and Sustainable States Network Speakers